

STANDING MEETING RULES

In addition to Bourinot's Rules of Order, the Board has made additional rules to ensure the Annual General Meeting flows in a timely, orderly manner.

1. Bourinot's Rules of Order are the parliamentary authority in all instances not covered by the bylaws or policies.
2. The meeting is conducted in a harassment free, respectful environment.
3. Attendees can use the Q&A function to send questions to the meeting moderator. These inquiries will undergo review to confirm alignment with AGM topics, prevent redundancy, ensure appropriateness, adhere to the College mandate, and comply with established meeting guidelines.
4. The total Q&A time for each agenda items will not exceed 10 minutes.
